

Dear JLF Owners:

The Just Local Food Co-op (“JLF”) Board of Directors and I are pleased to inform you that the June 30th deadline for purchasing stock or extending a loan to JLF is no longer in effect. Furthermore, no new deadline is being set. You are free to invest in JLF and the expansion effort after June 30.

We are also pleased to inform you that the first two weeks of our offering to owners has yielded excellent results. But we are not there yet. This expansion could not be possible, or even worthwhile, without your continued support and investment in JLF.

In other good news, JLF has attracted the interest of local investors and philanthropists who are seriously interested in making large contributions to the expansion to get us over the top. Decisions regarding these contributions are forthcoming in July.

In the meantime, the design for the new store is being finalized and a lease for the premises has been negotiated and drafted with little more to do than sign it. Very soon the process of soliciting bids for the buildout of the new space will be underway.

This is an exciting and historic time in JLF’s trajectory. It is also a time for unity and a time for teamwork. There can be no better time for your support.

Yours in cooperation,

Maria Bamonti, General Manager
